All roads have agreed to a rate of one fare and a third for district competitors where curlers from one town desire to visit another to play their games.

W. J. G. DICKSON, who is purchasing hogs in South Edmonton for shipment to the coast, has been compelled to reject several loads offered on account of the carcasses not having been properly dressed. The hogs must be clean, well scraped, split down to the throat but not to the tail, and must be about 125 pounds weight. Heavy hogs are not wanted. Unless the hogs are properly dressed they cannot be handled.

A FAMILY which arrived at Beaver lake, from the state of Washington last fall are now in very reduced circumstances. They expected funds to follow them but up to date no funds have arrived and they are stranded in a strange corner, in a locality and at a time of year when work is not to be had. The proposed district now contains a total population of 140 of which 75 are children and 41 children of school age. The provisional committee are August Schatz, H. Litke, and H. Drebert.

ARCHBISHOP elect Langevin of St. Boniface, left for Winnipeg on Friday's train. His Grace is a comparatively young man, not more than forty years of age, and was a professor in the College of Ottawa before coming to St. Boniface a little over a year ago. He had been selected by the late Archbishop Tache to come to Manitoba with a view to his appointment as coadjutor on account of the late archbishop's then failing health and the exceptional responsibilities of the position. He is a Canadian by birth, of strong physique, has excellent command of English, and is thoroughly modern in manner and method.

A. H. HEMING, artist for Harper's magazine, who in company with Casper W. Whitney passed some weeks ago on the way to the Barren Grounds to sketch the musk ox, returned on Thursday from Fort McMurray by way of Lac la Biche. In travelling north from Lac la Biche to Fort McMurray with dog trains, he had suffered an internal injury by a fall in the woods so that he was unfit to face the subsequent hardships of the trip and therefore availed himself of a lucky opportunity to return with Colin Fraser's dog train on the way north from Chipewyan. The party were making good time travelling about 35 miles a day. Mr. Heming left for Hamilton, Ont., on Friday's train.

A LETTER received by J. A. McDougall from Colin Fraser, trader at Chipewyan, which was brought by Mr. Fraser's dog train to Lac la Biche, says that trade is good at lake Athabasca and fur plentiful. The dog train will take back more goods. From Edmonton to Chipewyan is about 400 miles.

AT the request of the board of trade Mr. Jas. H. Ashdown of Winnipeg will meet the members of the board and the citizens generally this evening in the council chamber, the object being to discuss the question of C. P. R. freight rates, on which Mr. Ashdown is probably better informed than any other man in the North West.

A LETTER was received last week from E. Nagle, trader at Fort Resolution, which left that post some time in December. It will be remembered that in going down the Athabasca Mr. Nagle's outfit was caught by the ice at Grand rapids, and had to stored there for the winter. He went on however and reached Resolution on October 16th.

JAS. H. ASHDOWN, hardware merchant of Winnipeg, arrived on Thursday's train on a business visit. He drove to Fort Saskatchewan on Friday. Mr. Ashdown is the best known and no doubt the wealthiest business man in Winnipeg. He is one of the pioneers, having established business there in the 60's before the transfer of the H. B. Co. Territory to Canada.

THE many friends of G. W. Hislop, at one time manager of the H. B. Co. store here, will be glad to hear that he is doing well in San Francisco, having secured a good position in the leading dry goods house in the State of California. Mr. Hislop writes: "We are having lovely weather here roses of all kinds to be seen in bloom in the gardens in front of houses all over the city. Golden Gate park is also looking grand. Living here is much cheaper than with you in everything except butter and eggs which are 40c per pound and 40c per dozen and coal $10 for the best a ton. Granulated sugar 20 pounds for $1. Apples 50c per box of 60 pounds. Loaves 4 for 10c. All kinds of fruit as you are aware is very cheap. 10c per dozen for oranges for example. House rent was high two years ago but since the general depression like other things has dropped in price."

BURNS' ANNIVERSARY.

THE 136th anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns was celebrated by the St. Andrew's society of Edmonton, by a successful dinner at the Queen's hotel on Friday evening last, in which some sixty members of the society and invited guests took part. Among the latter were Geo. Roy, president of the St. Jean Baptiste society, Alex. McGibbon, ex-president St. Andrew's society, Montreal, Jas. Gibbons, president of the Edmonton Old Timers association, Frank Oliver, M. L. A. and Dr. Wilson, mayor of Edmonton. The chair was occupied by G. J. Kinnard president of the society, and the vice chairs by W. S. Edmiston and J. J. Dunlop. Dinner was announced at 8:30, and when the guests had taken their places the piper of the society Thos. Houston marched around the tables playing an appropriate and lively tune. The company then sang "There was a lad was born in Kyle" and the chairman gave Burns grace. The dinner was all that such a dinner should or could be, and included the celebrated old doubtful haggis, which, in this case was excellent, and almost universally indulged in. After the substantial had been disposed of the health of the Queen and Royal family was proposed by the president and drunk with due honors. The next and only other toast was "The immortal memory of Robert Burns," proposed by the president, and prefaced by a few appropriate words and the reading of an extract from a biography of Burns and his "Address to a Mountain Daisy." The remainder of the evening was enlivened by songs, speeches and recitations which were kept up until nearly two o'clock on Saturday morning. Amongst those who contributed to this part of the entertainment, were T. B. Henderson, speech; Mr. McAdam, reading "Burns' Address to the Toothache." J. A. Pettie recitation, "Burns advice to a young friend." J. R. Turnbull, reading, "Burns' anniversary in India." R. McIntyre, Mr. McAdam, Jas. Johnston, H. McKay, J. D. Campbell, Mr. Carruthers, who came from very near Burns' birth place, and P. Rielly Scottish songs, Messrs. D. Ross, Jas. Gibbons comic songs and Dr. McInnis, patriotic song, on the death of General Gordon. The St. Andrews' society have every reason to feel proud of their first anniversary dinner in Edmonton.

FREIGHT RATES.

The Manitoba government has presented a statement regarding C. P. R. freight rates to the freight rates commission that does not look as though that government was as much in league with the C. P. R. as many people supposed. Hon. J. D. Cameron appeared on behalf of the provincial government. The government case was divided into two parts, the first dealing with specific discriminations against Manitoba as compared with rates for similar distances on roads in the United States. The Free Press report says:

"The burdens of the government's complaint seemed to be that rates between Fort William and Winnipeg, over the piece of road given by the government as a free gift to the Canadian Pacific, were grossly excessive and the cause of much of the dissatisfaction. The contention appeared to be that were the rates over this section reduced to the basis of other sections the causes of complaint would largely disappear. It was also pointed out that a peculiarity of the C. P. R. freight tariff was that very low rates appear as applying to sections of the railroad where no freight of the description thus rated was ever offered, but at sections where the shipments were heavy the rates were placed at the maximum. For instance, it was stated that the rate quoted on wheat from Calgary to Fort William was 29 cents, while from Virden to Fort William, less than half the distance, it was twenty-one cents. The figures given by the statement appeared to show that while the increases on the C. P. R. are large, as compared with eastern and American railways on first-class freight, the increases were very much larger on fourth and fifth classes."

The second part of the case was a statement of the general position of the question of C. P. R. rates from the standpoint of the government, of which the following are extracts:

The government of the province of Manitoba, convinced that the prosperity of the people of the province depends in a large measure upon their being charged the lowest possible rates upon the carriage of produce and merchandise into, out of, and from point to point within the province, desire to be recorded as of the opinion that many of the rates charged by the Canadian Pacific are excessive.

Apart from the comparison which must be made on the subject of rates, of cost of transportation and of maintenance in order to ascertain whether the charges of excessive rates can be substantiated, there are certain considerations of a general character affecting the question to which the attention of the commission should be called.

The Canadian Pacific railway, by virtue of the act by which it was incorporated, received from the Dominion government $25,000,000, 25,000,000 acres of land and 713 miles of railway constructed by the government. From time to time further grants have been made until the value of the grants by way of bonus and otherwise, given the company, reached the enormous total of $103,000,000. As to the value of the land grant of the company it is sufficient to reproduce the words of Sir W. C. Van Horne, president of the company, at the annual meeting of the shareholders in 1888, when he said: "The lands of the company will yield more than $55,000,000, more than sufficient to pay the land grant bonds and the whole of the first mortgage indebtedness. In addition to this the government admitted material for construction free of duty, an extremely valuable concession which has recently been revived. It is to be remembered that the people of this province are paying more than their proportion of the taxes required to pay the interest on the large amount of cash given to the company. Taking into consideration the facts as well as the fact that one of the principal and avowed objects for the expenditure of these vast sums was the development of the Canadian Northwest, the people of this province are entitled to expect from the Canadian Pacific railway just, if not generous, treatment on the vital question of rates of transportation.

That portion of the main line lying between Fort William and Winnipeg, (over which the bulk of the freight into and out of the province is carried) was built by the people of Canada and presented to the company, free of incumbrance—a circumstance that distinguished the company from any of the other great railway lines on the continent and is strong equitable ground for placing rates upon that portion of the line upon the lowest possible basis consistent with its proper maintenance. Yet so far from the company adopting that policy it has adopted precisely the opposite and has massed its highest rates upon traffic into and out of the province upon this portion of the line.

Where little or no traffic is offered the line must be evidently operated at a loss. The people of this province consider that they have a grievance in this that they are charged rates not only sufficient to pay a profit on the operation of all that portion of the line which actually carries their freight, (from Fort William to the western boundary of the province) but also are charged such additional rates as must go to make good the losses incurred on the non-paying portions of the line. The extent of this burden can be imagined when the vast extent of the company's system and the comparatively small population of the province are borne in mind.

In disputing the statements that have been made on the subject of freight rates the company has frequently, in making comparisons between rates on American lines and its own, quoted, in the latter case, rates from certain points upon traffic which is neither offered nor carried. Many of the rates that are quoted on the Canadian Pacific railway, as in the case of other transcontinental lines, are nominal merely and comparisons based on them are therefore illusory.

The commission must remember that freight rates have remained for the last few years almost stationary, while the price of the various products of the farm have declined to levels hitherto unknown. Under these circumstances (which may be of a permanent character) the settlers of the province acutely feel that the present freight rates are a most unjust and onerous tax upon them and that they must be very materially reduced if there are to be any profits or even a mere livelihood in farming in this country. And this view the government of the province would urge upon the commission to strongly represent in making its report, in order that the Dominion government may properly realize the condition of affairs and devise an adequate remedy.

President Elder, of the Farmers' Institute, then submitted the statement of the institute in regard to rates. Their chief complaint was that the grain rate on the Soo road from Minneapolis to Gladstone, Mich., the lake port of the American farmer, was very much smaller than the C. P. R. rate from Winnipeg to Fort William, the lake port of the Canadian farmer. The institute statement also complained of the freight classification, and entered protest, too, that the passenger rates were excessive. A comparison of passenger rates with those in force on the Intercolonial railway showed C. P. R. rates to be much higher."

RED DEER.

Lieut. Cochrane, of Mitford, accompanied by Messrs. Bouchier and Jackson, arrived here on Monday's train for the purpose of looking over the ground in view of the approaching Dominion election. The party drove down to Innisfail on Tuesday, and will continue to go south by trail, visiting the various towns on the way.

Rumour has it that our townsman, the Rev. Leo Gaetz, is about to accept a call to a church at Brandon, Man.

Our new M. L. A., Mr. Simpson, paid a flying visit to Red Deer last week to ascertain the wants of his constituents. We presume that he will not feel inclined to use the words of the poet:

"Man wants but little here below,
Nor wants that little long."

STONY PLAIN.

A public meeting was held at the house of J. L. McDonald, Stony Plain post office, on Saturday evening, Jan. 19th. Samuel J. Eccles was elected chairman and George Sutherland, secretary.

Messrs. McDermid and McDonald moved that all the money that can be obtained for road allowance 2 miles south of the 14th base line be spent to bridge the narrows of the Two lakes between sections 19 and 30. Carried.

Messrs. McCauley and Decholki moved that the road committee use their influence to get the road right through the lake on the road allowance. Carried unanimously.

Messrs. J. P. Miller, Fred Decholki, S. J. Eccles and Hugh McGillivray were elected a committee to secure free labor for the road at the narrows of the Two lakes.

Messrs. S. J. Eccles and J. Turner moved a vote of thanks to Mr. McDonald for the use of his house for the meeting.

Signed S. J. ECCLES,
Chairman.
G. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary.

WETASKIWIN.

A Literary and Temperance society was organized at Wetaskiwin on Aug. 21st, '94. Its membership has now increased to 34. The essays, readings, debates, recitations, speeches and dialogues hitherto introduced at the weekly meetings have proved very interesting. A spelling bee is proposed for the next meeting, Tuesday, 29th inst, at 8 p. m. The officers, elected every two months, are at present: Mrs. Cook, president; Rev. C. H. Andras, M. A., vice president; Mrs. Foster, secretary; J. Albright, assistant secretary; E. M. Sharpe, M. D., treasurer; Rev. Mr. Morro, B. A., chaplain. Owing to the increase of numbers, the meeting is now transferred to the Methodist church. The last meeting at Mr. Giles' house, was followed by social games and coffee and cake, after which a vote of thanks was carried unanimously by the lodge to their hostess Mrs. Giles and assistant ladies.

Mr. Gould of Wetaskiwin, is erecting two new stores for agricultural implements and sleighs, and the old school house has been converted by him into a general grocery store.

Rumors of a proposed large general store to be erected in the spring with $15,000 capital, are also promulgated. A beet sugar refinery is also proposed, the growing of beets in this soil being easy and remunerative. The crushed pulp being excellent food for cattle after the sugar is extracted.

Wetaskiwin is proving itself a vigorous chick—though only just out of the shell.

GENERAL NEWS.

Winnipeg has a 7 o'clock closing by-law which some of the shop keepers say they will fight if the attempt is made to enforce it.

Ties are being taken out for a new railroad from Grand Forks north westward to connect with the Soo line at Portal on the boundary.

The Slocan Prospector mentions that 54 cars of silver ore were shipped from Three Forks, B. C., in the two weeks ending January 8th. Besides this 200 tons were hauled to Kalso, making 1000 tons of shipped in two weeks, valued at $125,000.

Free Press: Notwithstanding the oft repeated announcement from official sources through the public press that there would be a session of the Dominion parliament before the general election, private information has been received from Ottawa that dissolution is at hand and that the elections will come on before the house is called together for dispatch of business. A number of conventions have been arranged for in Manitoba for the selection of candidates and there is a strong probability that some of the dates will have to be made earlier than now fixed in order to have the candidates selected before the formal nominations.

Calgary Tribune: The Globe of the 18th says: "We have very strong reasons to believe that the country will be in the midst of a general election in a few weeks." The Hamilton Times, which, although a supporter of the opposition, is generally in possession of very reliable political information, says that it has received word from a source which can be depended upon, that the general elections for the Dominion will be held about the end of March or 1st of April. Sir Charles Tupper has corroborated the premature report of the decision of the privy council in the Manitoba school law case, and the Government have decided to hold the elections before they are compelled to take action one way or the other on the decision. We believe the Times' statement as to the date of the election is a reasonable one, though we do not think much of the reason, which it asserts has led to the government resolving to hurry on the election.

The financial statement of Prince Albert shows a net revenue for the past year of $8,281. Of this amount $2,640 went to the support of three schools, $1,692 for interest and sinking fund $1,269 in salaries. No public works seem to have been undertaken. A flour mill received a bonus of $5,000 which was provided by debenture. The debenture indebtedness of Prince Albert is $28,200 and total liabilities $30,637.

The latest European cure for dyspepsia is to put on heavy furs and descend into a tank where the temperature is below zero. In ten minutes the patient emerges with a magnificent appetite, and his meals agree with him wonderfully. Ten descents into a tank are counted to effect a cure. Evidently Europeans are beginning to think more highly of the Canadian winter climate, or they would not attempt to import it in miniature. A long walk or a sleigh ride on a bright frosty day will beat all the medical cold tanks in creation as a restorer and preserver of health.
